

LIONS 1982 MEDIA GUIDE

MEDIA INFORMATION

PRESS BOX

The working area for writers, broadcasters and photographers is located on the Club Level between the south and west corners of the stadium. The facility can accommodate over 150 media representatives in the upper press area and contains fifteen booths in the lower area for radio, television, photographers, public address and scoreboard operation.

CREDENTIALS

All applications must be made through the Lions Public Relations Department. Credentials are available to working members of the media. Since no "Will Call" is in use, most credentials and parking passes are mailed. Please allow at least three days for mail delivery. Credentials may also be left at a local hotel for pick-up when requests are made too late to guarantee mail delivery.

PARKING

A parking pass is required to enter the press parking area. The press parking area is located adjacent to the Press Box on the southwest side of the stadium. Enter through Gate 1 off Opdyke Road.

SERVICES

Statistical information is distributed before, during and after the game. Spotters and statisticians are available to radio and TV crews upon advance request. Western Union, SportsComm and CanFax services are available. Please contact these organizations in advance if you plan on filing. Food and beverages for the working media are available in the Press Lounge.

TRAINING CAMP

The Lions enter their eighth year of training at Oakland University, located less than three miles from the Pontiac Silverdome. The media work room is located in Vandenberg Hall in the Pioneer Room on the second floor. This building is next to Hill House, the team's headquarters.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD

Owner and President

After serving as host owner for Super Bowl XVI at the Pontiac Silverdome last January, William Clay Ford would like nothing better than to see his own Detroit Lions in the NFL Championship Game this January. The NFL title has always been the top priority with the Lions Owner and President, whose feeling and affection for the Lions goes back to the club's first season in Detroit in 1934.

The franchise had just moved into the Motor City from Portsmouth, Ohio, and his father, the late Edsel Ford, took young Bill to see this "new" team in action at the University of Detroit Stadium. Like the rest of Detroit, the youngster took an instant liking to the Lions.

Now entering his 19th year as sole owner of the club, Mr. Ford's association with the Lions began over 26 seasons ago. He was elected president in 1961, before purchasing the team outright in 1964.

Born and raised in the automotive industry, Mr. Ford is the grandson of the late Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company. As the youngest of four children of Edsel Ford, he attended Detroit University School in Grosse Pointe, Michigan, and Hotchkiss School in Lakeville, Connecticut. After a tour of duty in the Naval Air Corps, he was graduated from Yale with a Bachelor of Science degree in economics, at which point he joined Ford's sales and advertising staff, and later served on the industrial relations staff where he was a member of the committee that negotiated the historic 1949 contract with the UAW-CIO.

On his way to the vice chairmanship of the company, to which he was elected in April 1980, Mr. Ford gained special satisfaction as executive in charge of the development and subsequent introduction of the Continental Mark II, successor to the classic Lincoln Continental that had been developed and introduced by his father in 1939.

A member of the Ford Motor Company Board of Directors since 1948, Mr. Ford had overall supervision of the company's product design program from 1956 until his election to the vice chairmanship. He is one of four members of the Office of Chief Executive who share responsibility for general management of the company; chairman of the Executive Committee; a member of the Finance Committee and the Policy and Strategy Committee; and chairman of the latter's Design Subcommittee.

The Lions' chief executive is also chairman of the board of Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn, Michigan; secretary-treasurer of Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit; president of the Edsel B. Ford Institute for Medical Research; a trustee of the Eisenhower Medical Center; and a director of Boys' Clubs of America, the National Tennis Hall of Fame, United Foundation of Detroit and the Economic Club of Detroit.

Once a nationally ranked tennis player, Mr. Ford is married to the former Martha Firestone. They are the parents of three daughters and a son, William Jr., who is treasurer of the Lions.

RUSS THOMAS

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Now in his 35th year of service to the Detroit Lions, Russ Thomas has become one of the National Football League's most respected executives through a firm belief in dedication and hard work. His recent role in bringing Super Bowl XVI to Michigan and the Pontiac Silverdome exemplifies that attitude.

Long an event for south or western climates, the NFL title game was finally voted into a northern site, primarily due to the work of Thomas and other community leaders. Russ worked long and hard with top government and business officials throughout metro Detroit and Michigan, to gain the support of NFL ownership. Super Bowl XVI was a major success, not only for the NFL, but for Michigan and the entire northeast United States. Russ fully expects a return trip for the Super Bowl to Michigan and the Silverdome.

Since coming to the Motor City from his native West Virginia, Thomas has achieved notoriety as a player, scout, coach and broadcaster with the Lions. And now he holds the multi-faceted position of running the day-to-day operation of the club, a post he's held since 1967. Thomas was appointed Executive Vice President and General Manager in 1972.

Thomas is considered an expert in NFL matters and in player contract negotiations. He has been given even more responsibilities in the last few years, as Mr. Ford has been devoting more time to the automotive business. Russ regularly represents Detroit at the NFL owners' meetings.

Russ was an assistant coach when the Lions won NFL Championships in 1952 and 1953. In addition to his coaching duties, and before the advent of film exchange and computers, Russ was in charge of scouting opposing teams, evaluating college prospects and negotiating player salaries.

In his playing days, Thomas was an outstanding lineman. He came out of West Virginia as one of the state's most sought after high school football and track stars. He held the state high school shot put and discus record in West Virginia for years. He went on to Ohio State, where he earned All-Big Ten honors and All-American mention for his work with the Buckeyes. In addition, he earned letters in track and wrestling at Ohio State. Thomas was drafted by the Lions in 1946 and played four seasons before a knee injury ended a promising player career. He played both ways for Detroit and gained League recognition while serving as the co-captain of the team.

Thomas was an assistant coach at St. Bonaventure in 1950-51, before moving back to the Lions' staff. In 1964, after ten years on the staff, Mr. Ford named Thomas Director of Personnel, a post he held for three years until being named Vice President and General Manager.

Russ and his wife, Dorothy, live in Walled Lake. They are the parents of two married sons, John and Jim.

MONTE CLARK

Head Coach and Director of Football Operations

Entering his fifth season in Detroit, Monte Clark has assembled a team entirely of his own making. Just nine players remain from the pre-Clark era. And, after taking the Lions to the brink of a playoff berth with the NFC Central's best record over the past two years, Monte and his team are looking to reap some rewards in 1982.

"In 1981, we were just inches away," contends Clark. "We took on a very tough schedule and with a few breaks we could have had a much better record. We played exciting football and were in the race until the final minutes of the final game. These guys have been through a lot together. They've been here during the bad times as well as the good. They're all battlers and they've taken on adversity and met it head on. They've done everything I've asked and worked their tails off for me. A solid foundation has been laid and together, I believe we're poised for an era of success."

Following an initial 7-9 season in 1978 and a disastrous, injury-riddled 2-14 campaign in 1979, Clark's Lions pushed to 9-7 in 1980. The mark tied Minnesota for first place in the NFC Central, however the NFL tie-breaking formula awarded the title to the Vikings. Last fall, after losing five games by seven points or less, four in the final minute, the Lions stormed back to tie Tampa Bay for the division lead. However, in the championship showdown, in the final game, Detroit fell three points short, 20-17. Monte Clark knows champions are made from this mold.

So does Lion owner William Clay Ford, who awarded Clark with a new five-year contract extension last May. Ford, who hired Monte January 11, 1978, gave the 6'-6" coach complete control of the college draft, waivers, scouting and trades. Among the players Clark has brought to the Lions are Al "Bubba" Baker, Freddie Scott, Tom Skladany, Keith Dorney, Eric Hipple, Ed Murray, and, of course, the spectacular Billy Sims.

The 45-year-old coach came to the Lions with an outstanding background in the NFL. He spent six years as offensive coach under Don Shula at Miami. He was part of Shula's original staff there in 1970. Monte helped develop the Dolphins into one of the League's most feared units. A pair of Super Bowl titles, along with three straight AFC Championships, brought Clark immediate coaching recognition. Under his leadership, Miami led the conference in rushing three consecutive years, setting a new NFL single-season record in 1972 during the perfect 17-0 campaign.

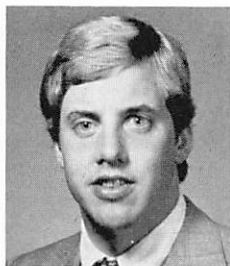

Clark became head coach at San Francisco in 1976 and propelled the 49ers into playoff prominence. Only some close, late-season defeats denied the team a berth. But the record indicated an 8-6 mark for Monte in his first year as head man and three more wins for the 49ers over the previous season.

Clark's coaching career followed an 11-year playing stint as an offensive lineman with San Francisco, Dallas and Cleveland. With the Browns, he appeared in the League Championship games of 1964, '65 and '68. Monte, who entered pro ball after a fine collegiate career at USC, is a native of Kingsburg, California.

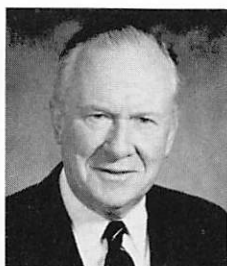

Monte and his wife, Charlotte, live in Bloomfield Township and are the parents of three sons, Bryan, 21; Randy, 19; and Eric, 15. A very proud moment for the Clark family came last April when Bryan was drafted by the San Francisco 49ers. The oldest of the Clark sons was voted offensive MVP last fall after a fine quarterbacking career at Michigan State University.

QUOTING MONTE ON 1982 — "We must become more consistent. We certainly proved we have the talent to play with anybody. But now we must prove we can win anytime and especially anywhere. We can't count on winning only at home. It's just a matter of concentration and working harder to be more consistent. I think with our proven corps of veterans, some excellent rookie additions and a few breaks here and there, we can push over the top this year."

TIM ROONEY

Director of Player Personnel

A familiar and respected name in NFL circles is the Lions' Director of Player Personnel, Pittsburgh native Tim Rooney. He came to the Lions in 1979 to coordinate the club's college and pro scouting, aid in evaluating talent, and take part in trade discussions and other administrative affairs. Tim's help in the college draft has brought Detroit some of the best college talent, as evidenced by the outstanding draft choices contributing to the Lions' success now.

Rooney, 40, came to Detroit after helping the Pittsburgh Steelers to three Super Bowls and seven straight playoff appearances. He handled the Pittsburgh pro scouting department from 1972 to 1978.

Tim actually grew up with NFL football, as his family name has been synonymous with the pro game almost since its beginning. Tim's uncle, Art Rooney, Sr., is the owner of the Steelers and introduced pro football to the city of Pittsburgh in 1933. Tim is also the cousin of Dan Rooney, President of the Steelers, and Art Rooney, Jr., the Vice President of the Pittsburgh club.

A graduate of Duquesne, Rooney gained coaching experience with positions at Villanova and Rhode Island, prior to joining the Steelers.

Tim lives in Birmingham with his wife, Mary Ann, and two children, Mike and Sarah.

SCOUTING STAFF

A group so instrumental in the many fine Detroit drafts during the past few years, is the Lions' scouting staff, composed of three highly qualified men; (l-r) Joe Bushofsky, Jerry Neri and Dirk Dierking.

Neri, senior member of the trio, is the western area scout. Based in Los Angeles, he is a veteran of 13 years with the club. Before joining the Lions in 1969, Neri coached at various levels. Following a fine career as a halfback at Villanova, he joined the school's coaching staff in 1943. He went on to positions with Loyola, Yale and the Washington Redskins. In 1965, he was made supervisor of the Pacific Coast scouting system of BLESTO, a talent-hunting combine representing many pro teams, including the Lions.

Bushofsky joined the Lions in 1975 and is in charge of the country's eastern area. Like Neri, Joe also spent time with BLESTO prior to beginning work in Detroit. A graduate of North Carolina State, he coached in the Pittsburgh area for 11 years. Joe lives in Birmingham, Michigan.

The third member of the scouting team is Clarence "Dirk" Dierking, a staffer since June of 1978. His responsibilities revolve around the central United States, especially his native southwest. He too was employed by BLESTO before joining the Lions. He makes his home in Texas.

BAUGHAN

BRUNNER

DOLL

MAXIE BAUGHAN — Defensive Coordinator and Linebacker Coach — Four-time All Pro linebacker Maxie Baughan joined the Lions staff in January 1980 to coordinate the Detroit defense. His 1981 unit ranked fourth in the entire NFL and for the second straight year led the League defending the run. Maxie came to Detroit after five seasons as defensive coordinator at Baltimore. With the Colts, he was part of three AFC Eastern Division championship squads. The 44-year-old Baughan played pro football for 14 years, beginning as a second round draft choice of Philadelphia in 1960. He went to five Pro Bowl games for the Eagles before being traded to Los Angeles in 1966. As a Ram, Baughan was honored with four more Pro Bowl selections. Maxie became part of the "Over the Hill Gang" at Washington in 1971. Following a three-year retirement, Baughan returned as a player-coach under George Allen at Washington before joining the Colts. His first coaching experience came in 1972, when he began a two-year stint as defensive coordinator with his alma mater, Georgia Tech. Maxie and his wife, Diane, have three sons: Maxie III, Christopher and Matthew.

JOHN BRUNNER — Offensive Backfield Coach — Entering his third season with the Lions staff is John Brunner, a 13-year veteran of collegiate coaching. He spent four seasons at Temple University, where he helped the Owls to their best record ever in 1979. The school established new total offense, rushing and passing marks on its way to a 10-2 season. Brunner, 44, began his college coaching career with Villanova in 1967. From there he went to Temple in 1970, to Princeton in 1974, before returning to Temple in 1976. The oldest of John's seven children, Scott, quarterbacked Delaware to the small college national championship in 1979. Current Detroit quarterback Jeff Komlo had led the same school into the finals the year before. Scott was elected to the Kodak All-America team for his efforts and last fall helped lead the New York Giants into the NFC playoffs, becoming the team's starter in only his second NFL season. Brunner was born in Perkesie, Pa. and attended East Stroudsburg State until his graduation in 1960. In addition to Scott, John and his wife, Barbara, are the parents of daughters Penny and Jan, and sons Jack, Jeff, Tod and Mark.

DON DOLL — Special Assignments Coach — Don Doll, a former Detroit Lions player and coach, returned to the club in 1978 as special teams coach. He now serves as Monte Clark's right hand man in administrative and office matters. Doll, 55, played with the Lions from 1949 through 1952, representing the club three times in Pro Bowls as a defensive back. He is still Detroit's co-record holder for interceptions in a season, 12 in 1950. His first pro coaching position was with Detroit in 1963, when he started a two-year stint as secondary coach under George Wilson. Previously he had coached at Southern California and Notre Dame in the college ranks. Doll went on to become the Rams defensive backfield coach in 1965, then went to Washington from 1966 to 1970, before spending the 1971 through 1973 seasons at Green Bay. Don was defensive coordinator at Baltimore in 1974, then a defensive coach at Miami the following year. Doll graduated from USC in 1948. In his first pro season with Detroit, he intercepted 11 passes, including four in one game. Don and his wife, Diana, have five children, Steven, Wendy, Kevan, Heidi and Michael.

HOAGLIN

MADDEN

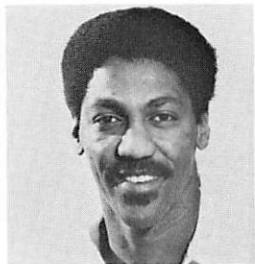

FRED HOAGLIN — Offensive Line Coach — Beginning his fifth year of NFL coaching, Fred Hoaglin has built an impressive offensive line from scratch. Working with rookies and young veterans, Hoaglin has impressed his former linemate, Monte Clark, whom he joined with Detroit in 1978. Clark, who played alongside Fred on the offensive line at Cleveland during the late 60s, watched a cohesive offensive line help the Lions lead the NFL in rushing last year. The 38-year-old Hoaglin opened his 11-year playing career as a sixth round draftee of the Browns in 1966. Soon after, he began a string of 69 consecutive starts with the club, until a leg injury forced him out of the lineup in 1971. A 1969 Pro Bowler, Hoaglin was traded to Baltimore in 1973, then to Houston the following year. He was chosen as one of the original Seattle Seahawks in the veteran allocation of 1976. Fred played his college ball at the University of Pittsburgh, where he earned a degree in industrial engineering. The native of Alliance, Ohio is a long time member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Fred and his wife, Janet, are the parents of two children, a daughter, Patti, and a son, Ricky.

ED KHAYAT — Defensive Line Coach — One-time Philadelphia Eagle head coach Ed Khayat rejoined the Lions coaching staff in January, 1982. Khayat, 46, coached Detroit's defensive line under Don McCafferty and Rick Forzano in 1973-74. A 15-year veteran of NFL coaching, Eddie spent the last five years as defensive line coach at Baltimore. With the Colts, he worked with current Detroit defensive coordinator Maxie Baughan and with Lions new offensive coordinator Ted Marchibroda from 1977-79. Khayat began his pro coaching career in 1967 with New Orleans. After four years with the Saints, he moved to Philadelphia, where he spent two seasons. Three games into the 1971 campaign, he was named head coach of the Eagles, a position he held until moving to Detroit in 1973. Khayat went to Atlanta for two years in 1975, before joining Baltimore. Ed's coaching career followed a fine 10-year playing stint with Washington, Philadelphia and Boston of the AFL. A Tulane graduate, Khayat was signed as a free agent by Washington in 1957. He retired from Boston following the 1966 season. Khayat, a native of Moss Point, Miss., and his wife, Deborah, are the parents of two boys, Eddie Jr. and Bill.

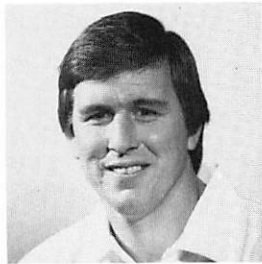

JOE MADDEN — Special Teams Coach — An 18-year veteran of college coaching, Joe Madden joined the pro ranks in February 1980 as Detroit's new special teams coach. Madden, 46, had spent the previous three seasons as assistant head coach to Johnny Majors at the University of Tennessee. He also coordinated the school's kicking and punting game. Madden began his college coaching career in 1962 at Mississippi State. He went to Morehead State the following year before spending four seasons at both Wake Forest and Iowa State. In 1972, Joe went to Kansas State, then joined Majors at the University of Pittsburgh the next year. He was Majors top assistant in 1976 when the Panthers won the national championship behind the running of Tony Dorsett and quarterbacking of Matt Cavanaugh. Madden personally recruited 20 members of that title-winning squad. When Majors moved to the top spot at Tennessee in 1977, Madden went with him. A graduate of the University of Maryland, Joe also holds a masters degree from Mississippi State. Madden and his wife, Janis, are the parents of two daughters, Kerry and Keely; and two sons, Casey and Duffy.

MARCHIBRODA

PHILLIPS

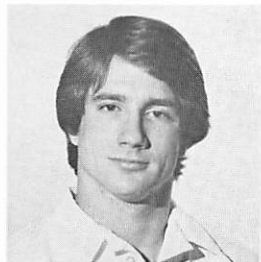

SEIPLE

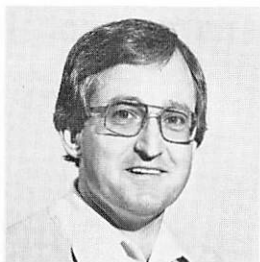

TED MARCHIBRODA — Offensive Coordinator and Quarterback Coach — One of the NFL's most respected coaches and a former football star at the University of Detroit, Ted Marchibroda became the Lions offensive coordinator and quarterback coach in February, 1982. Marchibroda, 51, was named the NFL's Coach of the Year in 1975, when he took over a 2-12 Baltimore club and forged a 10-4 division winner in his first year. The Colts went on to capture three straight AFC East titles under Marchibroda. Following the 1979 campaign, Ted left coaching for a year. He returned as offensive coordinator of the Chicago Bears last fall, before joining the Lions. Prior to his five-year stay in Baltimore, Marchibroda spent nine years as offensive coordinator under George Allen at Los Angeles and Washington. His pro coaching career began in 1961 under Bill McPeak at Washington. Marchibroda was a first round draft choice of Pittsburgh in 1953 after quarterbacking St. Bonaventure (1950-51) and U of D (1952). He was one of the nation's leading passers during his season with the Titans. In 1956, his best year as a player, Ted was the NFL's second leading passer. He retired in 1957 after a year with the Chicago Cardinals. Marchibroda is a native of Franklin, Pa. He and his wife, Henrietta, are the parents of two daughters, Jodi and Lonnie, and two sons, Ted Jr. and Robert.

MEL PHILLIPS — Defensive Backfield Coach — A former player under Monte Clark at San Francisco, Mel Phillips came aboard in February 1980 as the Lions new defensive backfield coach. Clark sees a positive rapport developing between Phillips and his secondary men. Phillips, 40, played 12 seasons in the NFL from 1966-77, all with the 49ers. Mel worked under Clark in 1976 and Monte was instantly impressed with his intensity and attitude. Phillips played in all 14 games that year, intercepting two passes and recovering a fumble. Mel's career stats include 10 interceptions for 106 yards in returns, including a 35-yard touchdown in 1970. He was regarded as one of the most respected defensive backs in the game when he retired in 1977. Phillips played both ways during his college career at North Carolina A&T. During his senior year, the school won its conference championship, with Mel intercepting two passes and scoring two rushing TDs in the title game. He was very active at the Youth Guidance Center in San Francisco for many years. He and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Paulette and Yvette.

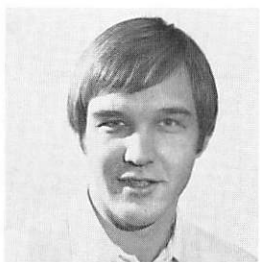

LARRY SEIPLE — Receivers Coach — Monte Clark's first receiver coach in Detroit, Larry Seiple, enters his third year with the Lions. Seiple is the Lions first receiver coach since Raymond Berry in 1975. A 12-year veteran of NFL wars, Seiple was a punter and tight end with the Miami Dolphins from 1967-77. In 1979, Larry was an assistant coach under Howard Schnellenberger at the University of Miami. Clark worked with Seiple during his six-year stint as an assistant with the Dolphins. Both saw the club rise to the top, winning two Super Bowls and three AFC Championships during the early 70s. Larry's best receiving year was 1969 when he led the Dolphins with 41 receptions for 577 yards. Seiple's professional career punting average was an even 40 yards per kick, with his best season coming in 1973 when he averaged 42.3. During his pro career, Seiple logged more game appearances (160) than any Dolphin other than Bob Griese. Larry was drafted in the seventh round in 1967 by Miami. He attended the University of Kentucky. Seiple, 37, and his wife, Trudy, are the parents of two daughters, Keri and Lori; and a son, Larry.

WADE

JAROSHEWICH

GARY WADE — Strength and Conditioning Coach — Two years ago, Monte Clark hired his first strength coach, Gary Wade. Since then, the coach has pointed many times to the improvements first made in the weight room, then on the field. Wade brought with him increased emphasis on weight training and many Lions, like William Gay, Garry Cobb and Keith Dorney, have shown dramatic progress in the last two years. Gary, 26, came to the Lions from the University of Nebraska, where he spent the previous three years. Nebraska has long been known for its outstanding weight and conditioning program. Taking a page from the Nebraska book, Wade changed Detroit's training system, converting much of the emphasis from machines to "free weight." He has instituted motivational rewards, such as "Lifter of the Year," which is given annually to the Detroit player who displays the most desire and determination in the weight room. Many more players now stay in the area during the off-season attending daily conditioning sessions run by Wade and the trainers. Gary graduated from Nebraska in 1978 and now lives in Rochester.

KENT FALB — Head Trainer — Beginning his 17th season with the Lions is trainer Kent Falb, one of the NFL's most respected officials in the area of sports medicine. Kent tends to the Lions injuries, along with his assistant, Joe Recknagel, and the team doctors. He oversees all rehabilitation exercises, off-season conditioning and even the pre-game meal menu. Falb is the Lions primary consultant, both in preventing and healing injuries. Kent graduated from the University of Iowa in 1964, where he was a student trainer from 1960 through 1964. He also spent the fall of 1959 working at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y. Falb worked some for the Minnesota Vikings in 1963 and 1964, before going to Boston College as Head Trainer in 1965. Late in 1966, Kent joined the Lions as assistant to Millard Kelley. Falb became Head Trainer in 1967. He is a past president of the Great Lakes Athletic Trainers Association. Falb, 42, lives in Lake Orion with his wife, Maxine, and daughters, Carmen and Nanette.

DAN JAROSHEWICH — Equipment Manager — The man responsible for outfitting the Lions is 28-year-old Windsor, Ont. native Dan Jaroszewich. His duties include purchasing, repairing, replacing and cleaning the many articles of clothing and pads used by the players and coaches. Aided by his assistant, Tony Reed, and often a crew of ball boys, Dan also supervises the complicated task of moving all this equipment, be it to training camp a few miles down the road, or across the country for a West Coast game. Jaroszewich learned the business from long time Detroit equipment man Roy "Friday" Macklem, who spent some 44 years with the Lions. Dan came aboard as "Friday's" assistant in 1973. After seven seasons under Macklem, Dan became the head man in 1980. Prior to joining the Lions, Jaroszewich worked at the high school and semi-pro levels in Windsor. Dan earned his college degree in personal and industrial relations from the University of Detroit. He is presently working on a master's degree in sports administration from Wayne State. Dan is single and lives in Auburn Heights.

1982 ROOKIES

1982 DRAFT CHOICES

Round One: (15th choice)

JIMMY WILLIAMS

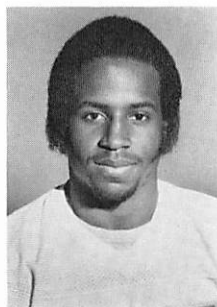

Linebacker — Nebraska

Ht. 6-3 Wt. 221

Born: Washington, D.C., Nov. 15, 1960

A self-made All-American who should fill a primary need with the Lions . . . One of the fastest athletes drafted . . . Ran a 4.5 40-yard dash during the club's May rookie camp . . . Joined the Cornhuskers as a walk-on in 1978 . . . As a freshman, he weighed in at 180 lbs. . . Built himself into a starter by 1980 and the Big Eight's Defensive Player of the Year in 1981 . . . A standout defensive end at Nebraska, he will play outside linebacker with the Lions . . . Monte Clark and his staff agree it will be difficult keeping him off the field . . . Voted to nine All-America teams and a unanimous all-conference choice . . . Leader of the sixth-ranked Nebraska defensive unit which allowed opponents just over 100 yards passing per game . . . Led the Cornhuskers in quarterback sacks with 10 . . . Intercepted two passes last fall against Oklahoma State . . . Led team in tackles during 1980 with 66 and in sacks with 18 . . . Earned six unassisted tackles and four stops behind the line versus OSU two years ago . . . Named conference player of the week for his efforts . . . Picked up five unassisted tackles, two fumble recoveries and two tackles for loss in Nebraska's 31-17 Sun Bowl victory . . . Older brother, Toby, is Nebraska's starting defensive tackle . . . Attended Woodrow Wilson High in Washington, D.C., where he also lettered in track . . . Family includes six brothers and two sisters . . . A physical education major.

Round Two: (42nd choice)

BOBBY WATKINS

Cornerback — Southwest Texas State

Ht. 5-11 Wt. 184

Born: Cottonwood, Idaho, May 31, 1960

Lions rated Watkins right below Williams and felt defensive needs would be met if the club could acquire these two in the first two rounds . . . Watkins possesses very quick feet and some of the best natural ability of any rookie cornerback in the NFL . . . Finished an excellent four-year career last fall by helping his team win the Division II championship over North Dakota State . . . Started his final two games as a freshman and all 36 from 1979-81 . . . Led his school in passes defended for three straight seasons . . . Intercepted 13 passes over the past three years, including five last fall . . . Played extremely well during 1981 post-season action . . . Earned 15 tackles and intercepted a pass in opening win over Jacksonville State . . . Also picked off a pass, while adding seven tackles and three deflections, in semi-final victory over Northern Michigan . . . Returned a steal 68 yards for a touchdown against Abilene Christian in 1980 . . . Attended Bishop Dunne High School in Dallas . . . Has seven sisters and one brother . . . Majoring in business.

The first defensive player ever named ECAC Player of the Year in 1981 . . . Also voted Yankee Conference Defensive Player of the Year . . . Established UNH school records for total tackles (434), unassisted tackles (252) and assists (182) . . . Was named Yankee Conference Player of the week four times and ECAC Player of the Week three times . . . Earned 10 or more tackles in all 10 games and had 20 or more during eight contests . . . Set single-season school records last fall with 195 total tackles, 89 solo and 106 assists . . . Finest game may have been last year against Connecticut when he accumulated 13 solo tackles, 12 assists, caused a fumble and intercepted a pass . . . Also enjoyed a 24 tackle performance versus Lafayette . . . Captained the defensive unit in the Blue-Gray Classic earlier this year . . . Detroit scouts, who rated him in the first round, were surprised he was still available in the third . . . Benches 500 lbs. and runs a 4.8 40 . . . Scouts compared him favorably to Ken Fantetti . . . Majors in business.

Round Four: (96th choice)

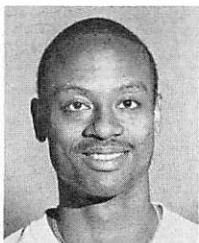

BRUCE McNORTON

Cornerback — Georgetown (Ky.)

Ht. 5-11 Wt. 172

Born: Daytona Beach, Fla., Feb. 28, 1959

May be the first player ever drafted out of tiny Georgetown College (enrollment 1,032) . . . Impressed scouts at the Senior Bowl, where he effectively covered bigger competition . . . He fared well at the BLESTO testing, displaying outstanding quickness, agility, and an ability to turn with the best . . . Lions also see him as a kick returner . . . Set school records for career interceptions (24) and single-season kickoff return average (40.6) . . . He also earned 61 solo and 47 assisted tackles last fall . . . Will be tested as a punt returner, although he hasn't returned punts since 1979 . . . Was voted most outstanding field practicum student on campus . . . Lettered four years at Georgetown, after attending Spruce Creek High in Daytona Beach . . . Graduated from college in December of 1981.

Round Five: (127th choice)

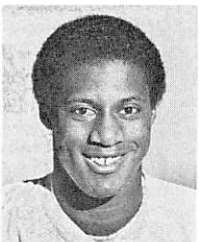

WILLIAM GRAHAM

Safety — Texas

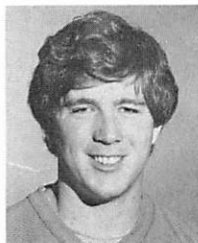

Ht. 5-11 Wt. 188

Born: Greenwood, Miss., Sept. 27, 1959

Texas Coach Fred Akers called it "ridiculous" that Graham wasn't chosen All-SWC . . . Preserved the 1982 Cotton Bowl win with a fourth quarter interception . . . Set Texas record with a conference leading eight interceptions last fall . . . Impressed scouts with ability, especially since Texas has put its free safety just eight yards off the ball in its defensive alignment . . . Picked off four passes in 1980, while earning 97 tackles . . . Finest game last fall may have been his 20 tackle performance against Oklahoma, which earned him conference player of the week honors . . . Grew up and attended high school in Silsbee, Tex., the same hometown as Lions James Hunter . . . majoring in Sociology.

Round Six: (154th choice)

MIKE MACHUREK
Quarterback — Idaho State

LIONS 1981 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARY

SEPT. 6 — LIONS 24, 49ERS 17 at Pontiac, 62,123

San Francisco	0	3	0	14	— 17
Detroit	0	10	0	14	— 24

- SF — Wersching 25 FG
 D — Sims 39 pass from Danielson (Murray kick)
 D — Murray 29 FG
 SF — Patton 1 run (Wersching kick)
 D — King 17 pass from Danielson (Murray kick)
 SF — Solomon 21 pass from Montana (Wersching kick)
 D — Sims 1 run (Murray kick)

A one-yard TD plunge by Billy Sims with 18 seconds remaining gave the Lions a big opening day win over the eventual Super Bowl XVI champs. Sims also grabbed a 39-yard scoring toss from Gary Danielson, who completed 16 of 27 for 196 yards. San Francisco matched Detroit in all statistical areas, as quarterback Joe Montana was accurate on 18 of 28 for 195 yards. Sims led the Lions with 59 yards rushing on the day, while 49er Ricky Patton picked up 72 on the ground.

SEPT. 13 — CHARGERS 28, LIONS 23 at San Diego, Ca., 51,624

Detroit	3	0	10	10	— 23
San Diego	7	0	7	14	— 28

- SD — Muncie 1 run (Benirschke kick)
 D — Murray 18 FG
 D — Danielson 11 run (Murray kick)
 D — Murray 37 FG
 SD — Winslow 7 pass from Fouts (Benirschke kick)
 D — Sims 12 run (Murray kick)
 SD — Muncie 1 run (Benirschke kick)
 D — Murray 30 FG
 SD — Cappelletti 2 run (Benirschke kick)

After matching a fine San Diego club score for score throughout the game, Detroit fell in the final seconds at the Charger goal line. A Frank Duncan interception ended a last minute Lion drive after San Diego scored the go-ahead TD with 56 seconds remaining. Detroit won the statistical war with 385 yards to the Chargers 367. Danielson threw for 213 yards, while Sims gained 98 rushing. However, San Diego's Dan Fouts went to the air for 316 yards, 166 of it to wide receiver Charlie Joiner.

SEPT. 20 — VIKINGS 26, LIONS 24 at Bloomington, Minn., 45,350

Detroit	0	14	7	3	— 24
Minnesota	7	10	6	3	— 26

- M — Brown 1 run (Danmeier kick)
 M — Senser 4 pass from Kramer (Danmeier kick)
 D — Sims 2 run (Murray kick)
 D — Sims 3 run (Murray kick)
 M — Danmeier 39 FG
 M — Brown 59 pass from Kramer (Danmeier kick)
 D — Danielson 1 run (Murray kick)
 D — Murray 25 FG
 M — Danmeier 20 FG

For the second straight week, the Lions lost a heartbreaker on the road in the final seconds. This time, a Rick Danmeier field goal with just four ticks remaining doomed Detroit. The Lions piled up 404 yards in total offense, 232 on the arm of quarterback Gary Danielson and 112 with the strong legs of running back Billy Sims. However, Viking quarterback Tommy Kramer, who drove his club to the winning kick in the final two minutes, connected on 25 of 42 for 333 yards.

SEPT. 27 — LIONS 16, RAIDERS 0 at Pontiac, 77,919

Oakland	0	0	0	0	—	0
Detroit	0	3	0	13	—	16

- D — Murray 36 FG
- D — Murray 39 FG
- D — Sims 3 run (Murray kick)
- D — Murray 39 FG

Before the first of six Silverdome sellouts in 1981, the Lions shutout the defending World Champion Oakland Raiders in week four. Detroit became the first club to whitewash the Raiders in 15 years as the Lions limited Oakland to just 131 yards in total offense. The Detroit defense collected six sacks and safety Jimmy Allen intercepted his fourth pass in as many games. Billy Sims earned his second consecutive 100-yard day by rushing for 133. Veteran Dexter Bussey passed Altie Taylor as the Lions all-time leading runner, but Danielson fractured his left wrist, an injury which would sideline the Detroit quarterback for ten weeks.

OCT. 4 — BUCCANEERS 28, LIONS 10 at Tampa, Fla., 71,733

Detroit	10	0	0	0	—	10
Tampa Bay	0	14	0	14	—	28

- D — Murray 50 FG
- D — Scott 5 pass from Komlo (Murray kick)
- TB — House 17 pass from Williams (Capece kick)
- TB — House 13 pass from Williams (Capece kick)
- TB — Wilder 37 pass from Williams (Capece kick)
- TB — Obradovich 6 pass from Williams (Capece kick)

Despite outgaining Tampa Bay 332 total yards to 211, the Lions squandered a 10-point lead in losing their third game. Six turnovers, including four interceptions, ruined Detroit's chances. Buc quarterback Doug Williams' four TD passes didn't help either. Between Jeff Komlo and Eric Hipple, the Lions put the ball up 40 times, totalling 239 yards through the air. Detroit's defense held the Bucs to just 49 yards on the ground, solidifying the club's position as the NFL's toughest against the run.

OCT. 11 — BRONCOS 27, LIONS 21 at Denver, Colo., 74,816

Detroit	7	14	0	0	—	21
Denver	10	7	3	7	—	27

- DEN — Watson 95 pass from Morton (Steinfort kick)
- DEN — Steinfort 24 FG
- DET — Sims 48 run (Murray kick)
- DET — Sims 1 run (Murray kick)
- DEN — Watson 40 pass from Morton (Steinfort kick)
- DET — Hall 60 interception return (Murray kick)
- DEN — Steinfort 24 FG
- DEN — Parros 15 pass from Morton (Steinfort kick)

Once again, the Lions were foiled in the final minute of an important road game. Billy Sims, who gained a career high 185 yards and scored two TDs on the afternoon, failed on a fourth-and-two sweep at the Denver 15 with 28 seconds left. However, it was Denver quarterback Craig Morton and wide receiver Steve Watson, who really cost Detroit the game. Morton completed 13 of 18 for 283 yards and three TDs, including 95 and 40 yards to Watson, who finished with five receptions for 182 yards. Rookie Alvin Hall gave the Lions one of two leads they had with a 60-yard interception return in the second quarter.

OCT. 19 — LIONS 48, BEARS 17 at Pontiac, 71,273

Chicago	7	7	0	3	—	17
Detroit	10	17	7	14	—	48

- D — Hipple 1 run (Murray kick)
- C — Anderson 85 pass from Evans (Roveto kick)
- D — Murray 49 FG
- D — Hipple 4 run (Murray kick)
- C — Payton 1 run (Roveto kick)
- D — Kane 2 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)
- D — Murray 53 FG
- D — Hill 10 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)
- C — Roveto 22 FG
- D — Scott 44 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)
- D — L. Thompson 94 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)

Detroit's first Monday Night football appearance since 1975 was also the debut of second year quarterback Eric Hipple as starter. Hipple responded magnificently as the Lions, playing without an injured Billy Sims, routed the Bears with their highest point total since 1957. Eric completed 14 of 25 for 336 yards and four touchdowns, including a 94-yarder to Leonard Thompson, the third longest in Lion history. As it turned out, Hipple accounted for all six Detroit TDs and led the club to 485 yards in total offense. Rick Kane filled in for Sims by gaining 101 yards and catching a scoring pass. Ed Murray's 53-yard field goal was the second longest in club history.

OCT. 25 — LIONS 31, PACKERS 27 at Pontiac, 76,063

Green Bay	7	3	10	7	—	27
Detroit	7	10	7	7	—	31

- D — Hipple 6 run (Murray kick)
- GB — Lofton 75 pass from Dickey (Stenerud kick)
- GB — Stenerud 27 FG
- D — Murray 37 FG
- D — Hill 1 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)
- GB — Stenerud 39 FG
- D — Kane 2 run (Murray kick)
- GB — Ellis 46 pass from Whitehurst (Stenerud kick)
- GB — Ellis 1 run (Stenerud kick)
- D — Hipple 5 run (Murray kick)

Detroit evened its record at 4-4, dumping Green Bay on an Eric Hipple TD run with just under two minutes left. Playing without Sims for the second straight week, the Lions totalled over 400 yards in total offense for the second straight week, as Hipple completed 20 of 36 for 271 yards and Kane earned 80 yards on the ground. Tight end David Hill had his best career day, grabbing nine passes for 98 yards and a TD. The Lion defense held Green Bay to just 75 rushing yards, contributing three sacks and an interception.

NOV. 1 - RAMS 20, LIONS 13 at Anaheim, Ca., 61,814

Detroit	10	3	0	0	—	13
Los Angeles	7	0	0	13	—	20

- LA — Tyler 69 run (Corral kick)
- D — Hill 14 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)
- D — Murray 49 FG
- D — Murray 45 FG
- LA — Tyler 1 run (Corral kick)
- LA — Corral 42 FG
- LA — Corral 31 FG

With Billy Sims back in the lineup, but not yet at 100%, Detroit's bad habits reemerged on the road. Sims gained 66 yards and went over the 2,000 yard mark for his career, but Ram Wendell Tyler stole the rushing show as he became the first opponent to pick up over 100 yards on the Lions in 1981. He rambled for 136 yards, most of it on a 69-yard TD jaunt to open the scoring. Detroit led the contest 13-7 for much of the afternoon but couldn't cash in on three drives into LA territory. Ram LeRoy Irvin and Lion Jimmy Allen both came up with two interceptions for their respective clubs.

NOV. 8 — REDSKINS 33, LIONS 31
at Washington, D.C., 52,096

Detroit	7	14	0	10	—	31
Washington	10	10	3	10	—	33
W — Washington 7 run (Moseley kick)
W — Moseley 21 FG
D — Scott 36 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)
D — Hipple 2 run (Murray kick)
W — Moseley 33 FG
D — Sims 1 run (Murray kick)
W — Monk 6 pass from Theismann (Moseley kick)
W — Moseley 28 FG
D — Sims 1 run (Murray kick)
W — Washington 12 run (Moseley kick)
D — Murray 50 FG
W — Moseley 44 FG

In a game that saw the lead change hands six times, the Lions lost their fourth contest in the final minute. Mark Moseley's 44-yard field goal with 43 seconds remaining settled the see-saw affair which featured 963 yards in total offense by both teams. Detroit's 499-yard effort was fashioned by Billy Sims' 159 rushing yards, Eric Hipple's 282 passing yards and Fred Scott's 156 receiving yards. But the Lions lost three fumbles and suffered three interceptions, plus rookie Mark Nichols' 48-yard reception fell two yards short of a TD on the game's last play.

NOV. 15 — LIONS 27, COWBOYS 24
at Pontiac, 79,694

Dallas	7	10	0	7	—	24
Detroit	0	7	10	10	—	27
DAL — Pearson 10 pass from White (Septien kick)
DAL — Septien 43 FG
DAL — Pearson 12 pass from White (Septien kick)
DET — Sims 3 run (Murray kick)
DET — Nichols 6 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)
DET — Murray 37 FG
DAL — Saldi 14 pass from White (Septien kick)
DET — Sims 81 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)
DET — Murray 47 FG

With a national TV audience and a sellout crowd looking on, the Lions shocked Dallas, winning in much the same way they had lost many games in 1981. Ed Murray's 47-yard field goal, which split the uprights as time ran out, gave Detroit its first win over the Cowboys since 1960. Sims outrushed the vaunted Tony Dorsett 119 yards to 55 and Hipple piled on 264 passing yards to Danny White's 244; the Lions came back from a 17-0 deficit to claim the victory, their seventh straight in the Silverdome.

NOV. 22 — LIONS 23, BEARS 7
at Chicago, Ill., 50,082

Detroit	3	6	7	7	—	23
Chicago	0	7	0	0	—	7
D — Murray 24 FG
D — Murray 23 FG
D — Murray 49 FG
C — Bell 92 interception return (Roveto kick)
D — Hipple 5 run (Murray kick)
D — Kane 2 run (Murray kick)

Detroit won its first and only road game of 1981 at Chicago and the Lions did it with a record-setting defensive performance. Detroit registered seven sacks and three interceptions while holding the Bears to just 24 yards in total offense. Chicago's super runner Walter Payton was held to 37 yards and the Bear passing game was stuck with -20 yards net. Billy Sims' 117-yard rushing effort gave him his third straight 100-yard day and helped Detroit square its record at 6-6.

NOV. 26 — LIONS 27, CHIEFS 10 at Pontiac, 76,735

Kansas City	7	0	3	0	—	10
Detroit	7	10	3	7	—	27

- D — Hill 10 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)
- KC — Jackson 4 run (Lowery kick)
- D — Murray 34 FG
- D — Scott 40 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)
- KC — Lowery 33 FG
- D — Murray 46 FG
- D — Sims 4 run (Murray kick)

Detroit played almost errorless football on this Thanksgiving Day and in pushing its record to 7-6, earned a three-way tie for first in the NFC Central. Ed Murray's two field goals and three PATs pushed his 1981 point total over 100. While operating a proficient offense, the Lions held KC's top-rated rushing attack to just 116 yards and sacked Chief quarterbacks five times during the afternoon. Linebacker Stan White earned his 31st career interception, while safety Jimmy Allen came up with his 30th.

DEC. 6 — PACKERS 31, LIONS 17 at Green Bay, Wis., 54,471

Detroit	3	7	7	0	—	17
Green Bay	0	14	7	10	—	31

- D — Murray 38 FG
- D — V. Thompson 9 run (Murray kick)
- GB — Huckleby 1 run (Stenerud kick)
- GB — Coffman 5 pass from Dickey (Stenerud kick)
- GB — Lofton 15 pass from Dickey (Stenerud kick)
- D — Sims 3 run (Murray kick)
- GB — Huckleby 1 run (Stenerud kick)
- GB — Stenerud 36 FG

The pattern was familiar. The Lions go on the road, grab an early lead, but falter and lose in the fourth quarter. It happened again in Green Bay. Detroit jumped out to a 10-0 lead early in the second quarter. But Packer quarterback Lynn Dickey's 20 of 31 for 279 yards and two TDs, came on to beat the Lions. Wide receiver John Jefferson sparked Green Bay much of the afternoon, catching eight for 113 yards. Detroit did some nifty passing of its own as Eric Hipple threw for 240 yards.

DEC. 12 — LIONS 45, VIKINGS 7 at Pontiac, 79,428

Minnesota	0	7	0	0	—	7
Detroit	14	17	7	7	—	45

- D — Sims 14 run (Murray kick)
- D — Martin 45 punt return (Murray kick)
- M — Senser 3 pass from Kramer (Danmeier kick)
- D — Murray 26 FG
- D — Scott 7 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)
- D — L. Thompson 10 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)
- D — L. Thompson 1 run (Murray kick)
- D — Porter 27 pass from Danielson (Murray kick)

With their playoff hopes at stake, the Lions dismantled an old nemesis, the Minnesota Vikings, and kept their perfect home record intact at 7-0. Billy Sims ran for 110 yards, Eric Hipple passed for two touchdowns, Gary Danielson came back from the injured list to throw another, and three players, Leonard Thompson, Tracy Porter and Horace King, all caught over 50 yards worth of passes. Also, the Lions claimed four interceptions and held the Vikes to just 72 yards on the ground. Robbie Martin's TD marked the first successful punt return by a Lion since 1977.

DEC. 20 — BUCCANEERS 20, LIONS 17 at Pontiac, 80,444

Tampa Bay	3	7	0	10	—	20
Detroit	0	7	3	7	—	17

- TB — Capece 40 FG
- D — Hipple 9 run (Murray kick)
- TB — House 84 pass from Williams (Capece kick)
- D — Murray 47 FG
- TB — Capece 30 FG
- TB — Logan 21 fumble recovery/return (Capece kick)
- D — L. Thompson 8 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)

With the NFC Central Division title on the line, the Lions lost not only the championship but their first game at home, leaving Detroit out of the playoffs for the 11th consecutive year. The Lions outgained the Bucs in all statistical categories, but three Detroit drives inside the Tampa Bay 20 were stopped scoreless. A pair of steals by Buc safety Cedric Brown killed the Lions deep in Tampa Bay territory. The in-stadium crowd of 80,444 was an all-time Detroit record, but it saw the Buccaneers win their second division crown in three years.

HISTORY OF THE DETROIT LIONS

Almost a half century ago, the Lions began a long and successful association with the Detroit area as its National Football League representative.

Detroit welcomed the Lions 48 years ago, but it was not the area's first look at professional football.

In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL. But the club folded after two years. Then, the Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925. They also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then 10-year-old National Football League took in a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for less than $8,000 by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before average crowds of 16,000 people, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in their second year, 1935. Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit and for over 45 years they have been an integral part of the Michigan sports scene.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions stars of that era were Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Greene, "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold, eight years later, to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964 when William Clay Ford became sole owner for a price of six million dollars.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950's with four division titles and three League championships. Under Head Coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952 and 1953, defeating Cleveland in both title games. Stars of those glittering teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne and Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker, Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have been looking in vain for the top spot. Such recent performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary and "Night Train" Lane have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players like Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Lem Barney and Charlie Sanders have taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Joe Schmidt began the first of six seasons as Head Coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the post-season playoffs, but lost in the first round to Dallas.

Just prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a fantastic new stadium in Pontiac, Michigan, a town of 85,000 people located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome is the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seats over 80,000 spectators under a Fiberglas roof.

Control of all football operations was handed to Head Coach Monte Clark in 1978. Clark's winning approach has brought a new optimism to Lions' faithful. With top caliber talent like Billy Sims, Dexter Bussey, Freddie Scott, Al Baker and Doug English, plus the astute direction of a proven winner like Monte Clark, the Lions are determined to regain a place among pro football's finest.

WHEN YOUR GROUND GAME NEEDS A LIFT . . .
GO TO THE AIR WITH DELTA.

Delta Air Lines takes to the air each day with flights to cities all around the U.S. and abroad. In fact, Delta jets make 1500 take-offs every day or an average of one take-off each minute. That takes the teamwork of a lot of not-so-average people. The Delta Professionals.

Are we ready when you are? Are we ever. Fly Delta and see. For flight information, see your Travel Agent or call Delta. DELTA
The airline run by professionals
